Source Adage Aétai Eau de Parfum

SHOP NOW $160

The Algonquian language, Aétai means "on both sides" — a perfect way to describe Source Adage's new scent, which doesn't feel easily definable. That delicious flexibility is created with notes of rose, iris, violet, pink pepper, clove, sandalwood, olibanum, ambergris, and patchouli. The combination is simultaneously frisky and robust, gentle and deep, and above all else, universal.
